

HOROSCOPES & HUMOUR

YOUR (50% correct) PREDICTIONS FOR THE YEAR MMV

By Dave Tompkins

ARIES (March 21 – April 19)

You've always been spontaneous and impulsive, but you'll bring it to new heights this year when you strip in public because your clothes are "chaffing".

TAURUS (April 20 – May 20)

You have a clear preference for staying in one place, and now with internet shopping, you can finally embrace your agoraphobia and stay at home.

GEMINI (May 21 – June 21)

You've always been particularly given to surprising transformations of the self, but even you'll freak out when you molt and completely shed your skin.

CANCER (June 22 – July 22)

You tend toward caution and often act prudently, but are you truly living? We say, take down your mental safety net and go for it – You know what we mean.

LEO (July 23 – Aug. 22)

You embody a sustained emotional warmth and loyalty that is not likely to change over time, so you can basically be replaced by a big sloppy dog.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 – Sep. 22)

You're often irresistibly drawn toward the shifting play of ideas and thought, and if you keep talking like that, mean kids will beat you up during recess.

LIBRA (Sep. 23 – Oct. 23)

You're particularly assertive on the intellectual level, quick to advance and defend your ideas. Wow. This may actually mean you're ready to graduate. Huh.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 – Nov. 21)

You exhibit an unshakable self-confidence that remains firm in the face of adversity. But the only adversity you face day-to-day is the bad weather.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 – Dec. 21)

It's in your nature to eternally quest after something new. You're so difficult to predict for that we've given up. Here's a gift certificate for one horoscope.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 – Jan. 19)

You take solid, dependable actions that are often geared toward material success. You're just soooo practical you make us sick. Try gambling this year.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 – Feb. 18)

You trust radish thinking and extend deep roots into the ideas they hold. So lots of salads and tuna dons for you. Oops... sorry – we meant rational thinking.

PISCES (Feb. 19 – March 20)

You're sensitive to the smallest alterations of feelings. Golly you're a wimp. We'd tell you your real horoscope but we don't want to make you cry.
