

Rules for exam viewing:

- Only one or two people will be allowed to view their exam at time; you may have to wait.
- Bring your WatCard (preferable) or other photo id.
- You may not leave the room with the exam.
- You may not copy/photocopy the exam.
- You may not write anything on the exam.
- You are allowed to make notes on a separate piece of paper (a special form provided at the viewing) but only for the purposes of appealing the marking of specific questions.
- The person supervising the viewing cannot answer course specific questions or questions about the marking of the exam.
- Our final exams are primarily a diagnostic tool for determining how well the course material was learned and understood. As such, solutions are not provided for exam viewing.
