

In-Class Presentations

Topic: _____ Speaker: _____

Introduction (Brief)

Introduction to the topic

Research Findings

Clear description of the topic and research that was done
Evidence of 'depth' of research
Tie to IS management
Original ideas and recommendations, if appropriate

Conclusion (Brief)

Recap of the major points, Concluding remarks

Content and quality of information, including depth (20%)

Personal knowledge of the topic, clarity of research, tie to the course (20%)

Was the presentation interesting, informative, understandable? (20%)

Oral presentation: expression, vocabulary, confidence (20%)

Was the presentation well organized? (20%)

Followed suggested outline above or another organized format?

Was use of audio-visual aids effective (if used)?

Were questions answered adequately?

Did all team members contribute equally (as much as possible)?

Were time constraints met? (about 5 minutes per person)

Comments:

Overall Mark (out of 100):

Marker's Name: