Publications in CCCG

There is some debate in the community whether CCCG should be counted as a refereed conference; I have therefore listed papers at CCCG in its own category. Papers submitted to CCCG are read carefully by the program committee, but the acceptance rate is typically high (approximately 60% in 2013.)

Papers submitted to refereed conferences (or accepted and not yet appeared)

1. None.

Non-refereed contributions

I publish most of my results as technical reports before submitting them to a conference or a journal, but I list here only those technical reports and workshop-papers that have not appeared elsewhere.
