Dear Adrienne Dwyer, Tribunal Clerk,
CC: Alice Raynard, and Paul Stolee,

The grievance was sent to the Provost on June 26 2022, with supporting documents. I am including the letter and attachments here.

A further letter, answering questions of the Provost, was sent on Aug 5, 2022, also with supporting documents. They are also attached here.

Please let me know if there is anything else you need.

Sincerely,
Richard Mann

Dear Professor Mann,

My name is Adrienne Dwyer and I work in the Secretariat's office, providing support to Alice Raynard in her capacity as Secretary to the Faculty Grievance Committee.

I am writing to you to confirm that we have received your formal Grievance and supporting documents, and we will be in touch soon to provide next steps. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out and we will be happy to assist you.

Best wishes,

Adrienne

Dear Professor Mann,

By way of this letter I am connecting you to the Secretary of the FGC, Alice Raynard, as per your request to move to internal arbitration. Alice will be in touch with you in the near future as to next steps. Please connect directly with her should you have any questions.

Best regards,
Kim

As secretary to the FGC Committee, I would suggest that you reach out to Alice Raynard, copies on this email.

Dear Provost Rush,

I do not have contact information for
Chair of the Faculty Grievance Committee (Paul Stolee).
Will you please provide contact information for FGC and a contact point for Paul Stolee.

In fact it would be best if you could write a letter to Paul Stolee indicating this path will be taken.
Will you do that for me?

I am concerned since I read policy and it said there was some kind of deadline involved. Therefore I must formally register an internal arbitration tribunal before a specific deadline, therefore I inform you of now NOV 12 2000 to initiate a formal grievance process.

I need to ask of the FGC, how do I file a grievance.

Sincerely,
Richard Mann
